VOL V—NO. 5.

MADISON, FLA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1905

$1 A YEAR

Off Ag'in; On Ag'in; Gone Ag'in!

We can't help it! Fact is, we don't want to help it! We are in the business to supply our customers at a reasonable profit to ourself, and as the people seem to like our selections and take them out of our Sales Stables almost as fast as we can get them in, there's nothing left for us to do but to keep on shipping, so our Messrs. Fraleigh and Lines are "Gone Again" this week to the Western Stock Markets for more Horses and Mules.

We are still selling on most liberal terms the best Wagon on the market—

THE CELEBRATED STUDEBAKER LIGHT RUNNING

Call on us and let us fit you out to your own notion with Buggy or wagon, Horse or Mule.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. Smithbart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colic's, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great medicine completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats, Hoarseness, sure preventative of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1.00 bottles at Moseley's drug store. Trial bottles free.

Death of Mrs. Susan P. Smith.

Mere word seem empty and barren as we seek for suitable language to express the shock felt by this whole community when it became known early Tuesday morning that the peerless soul of Mrs. Susan P. Smith had left its mortal habitation and winged its way to the home and beloved ones beyond the skies.

She had been visiting Mrs. C. T. Beggs of Pavo, Ga. when just two weeks prior to her passing, she was stricken with paralysis, from which she never rallied. Her devoted and sorrowing family were summoned and the utmost resources of love and skill were drained in the hope that at least she might rally sufficiently to enable an oft expressed desire to die at home. Alas, it was not so to be. Her body was tenderly borne home on Tuesday afternoon and laid to rest Wednesday morning by the side of her husband and children. Our time is too limited now to give other than the above meager facts but an extended obituary will follow in our next issue.

Several counties of the State are having trouble in securing teachers.

Pen Troubles

PEN TROUBLES quickly disappear when a high grade of stationery is used when writing. Try our line of writing paper and you will find it entirely satisfactory.
